

8631 Campbellsville Road • Hodgenville, KY 42748
 (270) 325-3854

2011 Apple Varieties

Variety Name	Description	Best Use	Approx Ripening
Lodi	Sour, soft	cooking	Late June
Ginger Gold	Firm, sweet	eating	Mid July
Paula Red	Tart, crisp	cooks up	Mid July
Mollies Delicious	Crisp, sweet	eating	Early August
Summer Mac	Tart, crisp	cooks up	Early August
Gala	Sweet, crisp	eating, drying	Mid August
Cortland	Tart, crisp	cooking, cooks up	Early September
Jonathan	Tart, crisp	bakes well	Early September
McIntosh	Tart, crisp	great for sauce	Early September
Golden Delicious	Sweet, crisp	great all around	Mid September
Red Delicious	Sweet	raw eating	Mid September
Jonagold	Crisp	great all around	Late September
Mutsu	Sweet, firm, juicy	eating	Late September
Cameo	Crispy, sweet	eating, drying	Early October
Winesap	Tart, firm, good keeper	cooks well, holds shape	Early October
Fuji	Firm, sweet-tart	great all around	Mid October
Granny Smith	Tart, Firm	Baking	Mid October
Arkansas Black	Tart, Hard, good keeper	Keeping	Mid October
Gold Rush	Hard, unique	Eating, Keeping	Mid October
Pink Lady	Sweet, Firm	Eating, Cooking	Late October

Several varieties of our apples are only found on young trees in the orchard, however they have already found a dedicated following. For this reason, production is limited and therefore quantities may be limited in order to provide fruit to the largest number of customers possible.